“It is only when we love God and Christ with all of our hearts, souls, & minds that we are able to share this love with our neighbors through acts of kindness and service—the way that the Savior would love and serve all of us if He were among us today.”

-Elder M. Russell Ballard
“Finding Joy through Loving Service”